

Will of Matthew McClurken

Dated April 8, 1847

Preble County, Ohio

Will of Andrew McClurken

Dated March 22, 1858

Fairfield County, South Carolina

Will of John McClurken

Dated November 19, 1872

Tipton County, Tennessee

The attached page is from the periodical, "Branching Out from Saint Clair County, Illinois" February 2007, Volume 34, Issue 2. It was obtained from the Allen County Public Library Foundation through their Periodical Source Index (PERSI) service.

WILL OF MATTHEW MCCLURKEN

Dated April 8, 1847

Preble County, Ohio

Bequeaths to son, James McClurken
Bequeaths to daughter, Catharine Faris
Bequeaths to daughter, Agnes Adkins
Bequeaths to daughter, Jane Hamilton
Bequeaths to daughter, Latisha Miller
Bequeaths to daughter Mary Ann Martin

Bequeaths to son, John McClurken
Bequeaths to son, Joseph McClurken
Bequeaths to son, Arch. McClurken
Bequeaths to daughter, Isabael Loudon

Signed Matthew McClurken

Witnesses: James Tuttle Adam Spivey

Executors: Joseph McClurken and Arch. McClurken
Probated October 11, 1847

WILL OF ANDREW MCCLURKEN

Dated March 22, 1858

Fairfield County, South Carolina

Names: Sarah Thompson, wife of John Thompson.
Leaves one negro woman.

Signed Andrew McClurken

Witnesses: John McClurken and S. W. B. McClurken
Filed March 31, 1858

WILL OF JOHN MCCLURKEN

Dated November 19, 1872

Tipton County, Tennessee

Bequeaths to son, John K. McClurken
Bequeaths to son, Robert C. McClurken
Had received land as heir of A. J. McQuiston
Bequeaths to daughter, Mary Jane McClurken
Bequeaths to daughter, Martha C. McClurken
Bequeaths to daughter, Sarah Ann McClurken
Bequeaths to daughter, Nancy M. McClurken

Bequeaths to wife, Ann McClurken

Signed John McClurken

Probated December 1872.

All of these wills came from Mrs. Torrens' collection at the Sparta Library.