

And to-day is Orangemen's day.

The seventeenth day of July, 1920, was just such a day as this.

Adjutant General Carnahan goes to Bedford this evening, to inspect the light guards there.

Geo. Young, who assaulted young Compson in University park, will be sent to the house of refuge.

John B. W. Davis was sentenced to the penitentiary for five years to-day, by Judge Miller, for larceny.

Gov. Parker yesterday pardoned James Hickey, a young man from Terre Haute, sentenced for two years for grand larceny.

Mrs. Ophelia Parker sues for divorce from John J. Parker, alleging adultery and abandonment. They have been married five years.

Deputy Attorney-General Thornton, promoted to assistant Sunday last, has gone to his home at Logansport, and the office is closed today.

On account of the great heat, the picnic at St. Paul's and St. James's Sunday school has been postponed until further notice.

Charles B. Howland, steward of the deaf and dumb institution, will be married to Miss Mary Wright, at the residence of the bride's parents on College avenue, this evening.

Harry Root, of 300 Central avenue, working at A. D. Straight's chair factory, had the first joint of a finger mashed between two yesterday. Repairs were made at the surgical institute.

Articles of association of the Ajax cigar and tobacco company, of this city, were filed yesterday afternoon. Capital stock, $10,000. Directors: E. W. Stewart, Edward G. Orr, and Olan Ross Ebladen.

The governor to-day issued commissions to John H. Ocker, captain; James M. Rohrbaugh, first lieutenant, and John A. Madden, second lieutenant of the McCallister battery, organized at Butler, DeKalb county.

The sun has burned all the grass about the city till there is little of green blades in the township, except on the edges of swamps and well-watered yards. New set plants are dying here and there. The only green thing is the universal weed. The month doesn't trouble that.

Culbertson. Governor Hendrickson should be kept in such a man made no suggestions in the present or reformation. Gov. Hendricks did not think Vally a great man. But not think, although there may be an excuse for whipping Harry was any excuse for whipping Thomas. Gov. Hendricks did not think of showing cruelty part but to show that he also an idiot, to mingle with child in mortal fear of the boy. He count of a work for poor child plished by Mrs. Fay in Ohio, to know what three men could revenue of Marion their best. As Wright did not know what to do with he demanded that something done by the commissioners. should consult those in charge of refuge and the reformatory disposition of the children. Hendricks then proceeded to tion of the sick ward. He was what Mike Conway was doing of the sick, a man with them cruelly. Why not been removed? He was a man yet a county charge. That will not endure that prostitute in charge of the sick ward board settle the question as such people shall be placed the sick. Gov. Hendricks did Wright with fault in failing to sane into the state hospital was no room for them. He did charge Wright in failing to give proper care. He declared C be unfit by experience to handle them. He said Culbertson had no attention, except when some acute disease. He quoted message as governor in 1875 was stated that fifty per cent. were cured by proper treatment referred to Wright's acknowledgment that it was wrong for to have charge of them. He said, no matter how less legislatures might be the compelled to comply with the al requirement that the insane